

Afghanistan crisis presentation

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person

Introduction:

To start off, the human right that I decided to talk about today is the third one.. It states that everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

This right is completely opposing to what this picture conveys.

This picture was taken this summer, in Khabul's airport in Afghanistan.

As most of you know, Taliban took control of the capital of this country.

The airport was the only way out for residents and they were desperate to leave.

This might have been one of the last available planes as there is tons of people on top of the airplane.

Videos have shown that after this plane took off, at least, three people fall hundreds of meters to the ground as it leaves the airport.

In the end, what was the reason why I chose this photo?

I brought this picture since I think we should all be responsible for raising awareness so that we can make our world a better place for future generations.

To sum up, I think we all should pay more attention to hard news rather than to soft news

As Antonio Guterres commented on this situation «Afghans have known generations of war & hardship. They deserve our full support. Now is the time for solidarity.»
